dissections to present to my entire department I relied on Grant's dissector as the gold standard for dissection preparation. Very useful in thinking about the best way to present the specimen. Did not always go to the level of detail that I would have liked for the extremities, however. Few general resources. Since 1940 when Dr J C Boileau Grant created the first lab manual based on Grant's method of dissection, Grant's Dissector has clearly established its authority and preeminence as the gold standard of gross anatomy dissection manuals. In the last edition, the material was streamlined to focus on more accurate, specific and clear steps based on market conditions and feedback. This edition continues to focus on the trend of reduced lab hours yet maintain
